ARTS, LITERATURE AND COMMUNICATION

ARTS AND DESIGN OPTION

DEC DIPLOMA OF COLLEGE STUDIES DAY | 4 SEMESTERS

500.AF

The Arts, Literature and Communication program is intended for students willing to experiment artistic production while gaining a more in-depth general culture in order to better understand and appreciate artistic and literary works.

Throughout your studies in Arts, Literature and Communication, Arts and Design Option, you will take part in various artistic events such as visiting renowned institutions as well as alternative venues. Furthermore, you will actively participate in these events while enjoying the intercultural environment of Montreal. These experiences will lead you to apply critical thinking, discussion and an overall openness towards the deeper meanings, implications and values of art.

The development of all these competencies aims to involve students so that they become an agent of change in our current and future society.

The Arts and Design Option is intended for students looking forward to creating a portfolio that will allow them to enter competitive university programs.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

By the end of the program, you will have acquired competencies to analyse and even critique various artistic productions. In addition, you will have the tools to create and express yourself in various art mediums.
